ASSIGNMENTS

Ashkenazy Acquisition Corp has retained Elkus Manfredi's Howard Elkus to create a master plan to upgrade historic Faneuil Hall Marketplace. Ashkenazy acquired the 63-year ground lease for the famed Boston landmark this fall from Chicago-based General Growth.

EXEC MOVES

Skanska USA's Commercial Development unit, which recently broke ground on its first project in Cambridge (on spec, no less), promoted Shawn Hurley to regional manager for Boston. He'll oversee the growth of Skanska's commercial development biz here. Shawn was instrumental in the acquisition and development of the company's $70M life science building at 150 Second St in East Cambridge.

Bierbrier Development, a developer of urban shopping centers in Eastern Massachusetts, promoted Ronald Dattoli to senior property manager. After 25 years with the company, he'll oversee its portfolio in Haverhill, Arlington, Medford and Brockton, including supervision of day-to-day operations, building systems, tenant build-outs, tenant compliance, and property maintenance.

Fort Point Project Management, which provides relo and project management services, has hired Meagan O'Hara as director of business development. She'll manage existing clients and seek new business in the life sciences, institutional, high tech, and corporate sectors. Megan will also manage FPPM's social media initiatives.

Jeremy Roy has joined Grubb & Ellis' Boston team as VP repping tenants and landlords in the downtown office market. Over the past 14 years, he's worked for Charterhouse Development, doing development, landlord representation, and property management in northern New England. He also worked the downtown office market for JLL.

Rather than ask for news, we'd like to thank you for being part of our network of deals and dealmakers. We wish you Happy Holidays. See you in '12. Susan Diesenhouse, susan@bisnow.com
