

Corporate Project Partners Adds Jill Mullaney as Project Manager

BOSTON, MA (January 5, 2005)—Corporate Project Partners (CPP), a provider of corporate project planning, management and relocation services, today announced that Jill Mullaney has joined the firm as Project Manager.

Leveraging her years of contract furniture dealership experience with large corporate clients such as Gillette and One Beacon Insurance, Jill Mullaney will focus on project details and constant client communication. Jill holds a Business degree from the University of Massachusetts.

“Jill is a detail-oriented, process-driven project manager who has proven her good judgment already with CPP clients,” said Christine Moshelder, a partner at Corporate Project Partners. “At CPP, we deliberately seek out facilities professionals with diverse strengths and interests who complement our team. The “fit” with our team is critical and we are very excited to have Jill on board.”
