

Mosholder Honored by NEWIRE for Community Service

BOSTON, Mass. – April 12, 2006 – Corporate Project Partners, a provider of facilities planning, project management and relocation services, announced today that Partner Christine Mosholder was honored by New England Women in Real Estate (NEWIRE) for her involvement in a community service project.

Each year, the NEWIRE Development Committee issues a request for proposals (RFP) for non-profits in need of real estate consulting services. In her role as project manager on the most recent project, Mosholder helped develop a conceptual project plan for redeveloping 1534 Tremont Street and using the space as a community resource.

The Mission Hill Health Movement (MHMM) acquired the 1,800 square foot split level building as a community resource and has since secured two tenants, The Boston Self Help Center (BSHC) and Mission Hill Main Streets.
